

Absolutely! Here's a breakdown of the vocabulary words with their meanings:

Trends:

1. Increase: To become or make larger or more.
2. Decrease: To become or make smaller or less.
3. Rise: To move upward or to increase in value.
4. Fall: To move downward or decrease in value.
5. Fluctuate: To vary or change irregularly.
6. Peak: The highest point or maximum value.
7. Plummet: To fall or drop rapidly.
8. Dip: A brief, slight drop or decrease.
9. Spike: A sudden, sharp increase.
10. Steady: Constant, stable, or consistent.
11. Gradual: Happening or changing slowly over time.
12. Sharp: Rapid or sudden, often describing a change.
13. Substantial: Significant in amount or size.
14. Marginal: Small or insignificant.
15. Consistent: Unchanging in achievement or effect.

Comparisons:

- 1.
2. Exceed: To go beyond or be greater than.
3. Surpass: To go beyond or excel in comparison.
4. Outstrip: To surpass or exceed someone or something.
5. Eclipse: To surpass or outshine.
6. Outpace: To move faster or progress more quickly.
7. Lag behind: To fall behind or move slower than others.
8. Parallel: Similar or comparable.
9. Comparable: Able to be likened or similar enough to compare.
10. Disparity: A significant difference or inequality.
11. Discrepancy: A lack of compatibility or consistency.
12. Vary: To differ or change.
13. Diverge: To move or extend in different directions.
14. Converge: To come together or meet at a point.

Proportions and Amounts:

- 1.

2. Significant: Important, noteworthy, or considerable.
3. Marginal: Relatively small or minimal.
4. Substantial: Large in amount, value, or importance.
5. Negligible: Small or insignificant, often to the point of being ignored.
6. Predominant: Having greater power, influence, or importance.
7. Minor: Lesser in size, importance, or degree.
8. Major: Greater in importance, size, or seriousness.
9. Consistent: Unchanging in achievement or effect.
10. Considerable: Large or significant.
11. Sizable: Fairly large in size or amount.
12. Minimal: The least possible or very small.
13. Maximize: To make as large or great as possible.
14. Minimize: To reduce to the smallest possible amount or degree.
15. Optimize: To make as effective or functional as possible.
16. Plateau: A period of stability or no change.
17. Trough: A low point or a period of low activity.
18. Crest: The highest point or peak of something.
19. Baseline: A starting point or reference level.

Example sentences

Trends:

- 1.
2. Increase: The number of smartphone users has continued to increase over the past decade.
3. Decrease: Sales of traditional newspapers have steadily decreased since the rise of digital media.
4. Rise: The temperature is expected to rise significantly over the next few days.
5. Fall: Profits fell sharply after the company implemented the new pricing strategy.
6. Fluctuate: The stock market has been fluctuating unpredictably this month.
7. Peak: Attendance at the festival reached its peak on the final day.
8. Plummet: Property prices plummeted following the economic recession.
9. Dip: There was a slight dip in customer satisfaction ratings last quarter.
10. Spike: There was a sudden spike in online shopping during the holiday season.
11. Steady: The company has maintained a steady growth rate over the past year.
- 12.

Comparisons:

- 1.
2. Exceed: The company's revenue exceeded expectations for the third consecutive quarter.
3. Surpass: The new model of the car surpasses its predecessor in terms of fuel efficiency.
4. Outstrip: Demand for renewable energy has outstripped supply in many regions.
5. Eclipse: The new technology is expected to eclipse traditional methods in efficiency.
6. Outpace: Online sales continue to outpace in-store purchases.
7. Lag behind: Developing countries often lag behind in terms of access to healthcare.
8. Parallel: The trends in consumer behavior in Europe are parallel to those in North America.
9. Comparable: The company's growth this year is comparable to that of its competitors.
10. Disparity: There is a significant disparity in income levels within the city.

11. Discrepancy: The discrepancy between the predicted and actual sales figures was notable.
12. Vary: Prices for the product vary depending on the region.
13. Diverge: Opinions on the matter tend to diverge among different age groups.
14. Converge: The trends in technology and consumer behavior are converging rapidly.

Proportions and Amounts:

- 1.
2. Significant: There has been a significant increase in online education enrollments.
3. Marginal: There was only a marginal improvement in the company's profits.
4. Substantial: The company invested a substantial amount in research and development.
5. Negligible: The impact of the policy change was negligible.
6. Predominant: The predominant factor in the decision was cost.
7. Minor: There were only minor changes in the product design.
8. Major: The company made a major breakthrough in renewable energy technology.

9. Consistent: The company's approach to customer service has been consistent.
10. Considerable: The project required a considerable amount of funding.
11. Sizable: There was a sizable increase in customer complaints this month.
12. Minimal: The differences between the two products were minimal.
13. Maximize: The company aims to maximize efficiency in its production process.
14. Minimize: The goal is to minimize waste and environmental impact.
15. Optimize: The software is designed to optimize performance.
16. Plateau: After a period of growth, sales reached a plateau.
17. Trough: The economy experienced a trough during the recession.
18. Crest: The housing market reached its crest before the bubble burst.
19. Baseline: The study used this year's data as a baseline for comparison.
- 20.